Dakota Zoo

The Dakota Zoo, located in Bismarck, ND, was founded in 1961 and officially opened June 3, 1961. The zoo began with 15 acres of land, 75 mammals and 23 birds. It has now grown to 90 acres of land, with 600 different animals, totaling 125 different species. The park receives 150,000 visitors on average a year. The zoo cares for many animals- some of the following, tigers, bears, monkeys, alligators, penguins, and soon to be red pandas! A fun trip for the whole family to enjoy!
