BIG GAME IN NORTH DAKOTA

NORTH Dakota

Be Legendary.

North Dakota has seasons for Bighorn Sheep, Elk, Moose, Mule Deer, Pronghorn and White-tailed Deer.

Nonresidents Archery licenses for any white-tailed deer are not limited and may be purchased online or over the counter at North Dakota Game & Fish Headquarters in Bismarck. Nonresident any deer archery licenses good for mule deer and white-tailed deer are drawn in a lottery.

Nonresidents may apply in lotteries for Bighorn Sheep, Deer Gun and the Any Deer Archery Tag. Nonresident Any Deer Archery online lottery applications are available between March 15 and April 15 each year. Hunters can apply online. Online lottery applications for the gun seasons are generally made available in early May. Gun lottery deadlines are in early June each year.

There is a slim chance for nonresidents to receive an elk or moose tag. Rocky Mountain Elk Foundation/Game Warden Museum will raffle off a single elk and moose tag each year.

Landowners may post land with physical signage or electronically. Visit gf.nd.gov/hunting/where for publicly accessible hunting lands.
